

AR5 World Book Day shared write

There's a cute, brown orang-utan

Who has a really amazing gang.

Let's have a big conversation

About cruel deforestation.

He swings from the tall, emerald trees

Shouting to his mates "More fresh fruits please!"

Let's have a big conversation

About cruel deforestation.

But one day a human came with soil

To make traumatic killer palm oil.

Let's have a big conversation

About cruel deforestation.

All of the fruits are being chopped down

Now he has a furious frown.

Let's have a big conversation

About cruel deforestation.

So now the orang-utan has no home

He is left to starve all alone.

Let's have a big conversation

About cruel deforestation.

So now for the life changing moral

Just please do not buy nasty palm oil.

Let's have a big conversation

About cruel deforestation.
